

I'M A "BUSY BEE", I'M READY TO LIVE THE 21ST CENTURY

THE PROGRAM AIMS:

- Prepare South African Muslim girls for an increasingly complex life and work environment in the 21st century.
- Support girls in all aspects of their development
- Improve: self-esteem, compassion, self-awareness their body image, respect for self and others, mentoring roles and self-empowerment.
- Develop skills knowledge and expertise needed to succeed in work life and citizenship in the 21st century such: creativity, critical thinking, problem solving, communication, productivity, accountability and responsibility.

THE PROGRAM:

- A prevention based youth development and support program
- Holistic and responsive to the needs of girls
- Comprehensive approach to youth development

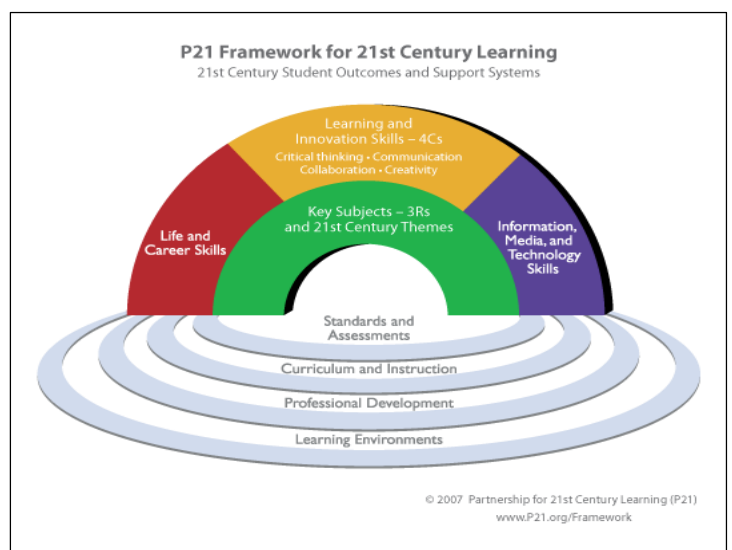

How the program will achieve its goals:

- Spiritual workshops
- Financial, business, and entrepreneurial literacy course
- Robotic workshop
- Baking, cooking skills course
- Makeup, beauty skills course
- Islamic etiquette
- Programming, coding, web and game designing
- Engineering based skills (plan designing, building .
- Fitness (cycling, nutrition program, bolster body confidence)
- Health knowledge and life style (health management, prepare for menstruating...)
- NLP workshop
- House skills: gardening, interior designing

When the program will take place:

- Fridays 15:00 to 4:30
- Who will benefit:
Girls from Grade 6 to Grade 12

Where the program will take place: Mini Hall

All programs and activities will be integrated with

Islamic values